CLUB CHANGES HANDS.

Peter Healy and "Pop" Lytle Acquire 11 from Mr. Howell-Nicholson and C'Harn Released - President Powers Resigns.

The Wheeling base ball club changed hands Saturday, as was predicted ear-lier in the week. W. B. Howell disposes of the club to Messrs. Peter Healy and ex-Manager Edward B. Lytle, for a cash consideration of $800, and with the proviso that he is to take down the $500 of the Wheeling club in the league guarantee fund, the owners to replace that sum, so the considera-tion is really $1,300. The deal was ef-tion is really $1,200. The deal was effective Saturday afternoon, the receipts of the Youngstown-Wheeling game being divided equally between. Howell and Lytle and Healy, Saturday night the new management released Manager and First Baseman "Parson" Nicholson and Right Fielder O'Hara. Then the team went to Dayton, and the new management Inaugurated itself with a crushing defeat at the hands of the "Old Soldiers," the Stogies being beaten to the tune of 29 to 4. Wells was pounded all over the lat, and the Wheelings distinguished (7) themselves by making ten errors, Pitchemselves by Pitchemselves by Pitchemselves by Pitchemselves by Pitchemselves by Pitchemselves by Pitchem lat, and the Wheelings distinguished (2) themselves by making ten errors. Pitcher Poole played at first base, and Lytle resumed his old position in right field. Monday is an off day; then the team goes to Fort Wayne and Springheld, and returns home next week. The new management, it is given out, will sign another pitcher to help out Wells, Parvin and Poole, who are being sadly overworked, and a hard-hitting first baseman is wanted. Otherwise there will be no change at present.

It is learned that gentlemen who are baseman is wanted. Otherwise there will be no change at present.

It is learned that gentlemen who are connected with the Wheeling Railway Company are indirectly interested in the new management, and it is said this interest is brought about by the desire to secure the Judge Driggs propperty, over the river, back of Bridge-port, on the Wheeling Railway Company's line, where it is thought Sunday base ball may be made a go. Whether a park will be put up there this summer is doubtful, but a Sunday park there next spring is said to be on the cards. An effort to play Sunday ball over the river five years ago falled.

To-day, at Mansfield, the Inter-State magnates are to meet at the call of President Charles B. Power. A telegram to ex-President Howell gives the reason for this meeting. The telegram reads:

PITTSBURGH, August 12.
W. B. Howell, Wheeling:

I will not longer serve as president. League meeting next Monday at New Castle. C. B. POWER.

I will not longer serve as president. League meeting next Monday at New Castle.

C. E. POWER.

Later the place of meeting was changed to Mansfield.

The meeting will be attended by ex-President Howell and Mr. Healy, one of the new owners of the club. Mr. Howell will pull down his $509 in the suarantee fund, and Mr. Healy will replace it with his half thousand. Mr. Howell goes loaded with receipts from his players, showing that he is square with the base ball world. For Mr. Howell, it can be, said that he has done what few Wheeling magnates can point to—he has paid off every cent of his obligations, and for this he is deserving of all credit. His connection with base ball was unfortunate; first, he ran up against the long street car strike, and this was followed by the disappointing showing of the team and the consequent loss of public interest to a considerable degree. Notwithstanding these and other discouragements, he has pulled out of the same without the loss of a cent, and under the circumstances this is a striking testimonial to the high quality of Wheeling as a base ball town.

President Power's resignation comes as a surprise to many people, but a surprise to the high quality of Wheeling as a base ball town.

Matters of Interest in the Metropolis of Belmont County

The joint convention of Carroll and Harrison counties this week to nomi-nate a candidate for representative. either Hon. D. O. Rutan, who was beaten in the primaries, or some other per-son, will be watched with interest by all the counties in this congressional district, as it is thought the outcome will have some bearing on the con-gressional situation up in that section. gressional situation up in that section.

Mr. Rutan, though charged with being recreant to his trust in the senatorial contest, is a bright, smart, active politician, whose favor is sought by several candidates, and he is not likely to give up a re-nomination without taking a hand in shaping events. The convention will be held on Wednesday, but no one can foretell the result.

Mrs. M. Delters, of No. 25 South Huron street, says: "I suffered for several years with my back, brought on by an attack of ia grippe, characterised by severe aching pains across the small of my back and through my right thigh; bearing down pains in the bladder; numbness and aching of the ankles; often worse when lying down; and often when in hed I would be so stiff I could hardly turn over or get out of it. I saw so many favorable accounts of Doan's Kidney Pills that I got a box at the Logan Drug Co., and besan their use. I felt relieved after a few doses and continued their use with splendid results. My elster was visiting me at the time, and being troubled as I was, she took some on my recommendation and they helped her right away."

Progressive Neighbor.

The Steubenville and Bellaire papers are raising an unnecessary "how!" as to the place of holding the next congressional convention. We wonder why this is, is is because they were desirous of securing the convention for their respective cities and are sore heads because it has gone to this place, one of the most progressive cities in the Ohlo valley and a city that has never yet been favored with a like convention, or is it because they think there is a likelihood of the place of holding it being changed at this late hour? Their far-fstehed how is that we have no accommodations, no place for holding the convention. What incongruity. This city has quarters for holding the convention, no matter how large, second to none in the district. While our hotel accommodations are rather limited, yet our city will have no trouble in housing all who may attend, even should the number reach one thousand. Notices will be sent out by the chalman of the reception committee this week to the various newspapers throughout the district, stating that suitable accommodations have been secured for all notwithstanding the contrary reports published in a number of the country papers.
